

CLU Symphony performs concert for Mother's Day

Staff Reports

Friday, April 22, 2011

The California Lutheran University Symphony will present a free pops concert for Mother's Day.

The concert, which will feature popular songs from Broadway musicals, will be from 2 to 4 p.m. May 7 at Gardens of the World in Thousand Oaks. The gates will open at 1 p.m. If it rains, the concert will move to Samuelson Chapel on the CLU campus.

Selections include music from "South Pacific" and "Les Miserables," as well as from the movie "The Adventures of Robin Hood." Daniel Geeting, a CLU music professor, will conduct.

Seating will be on the lawn, so people should bring blankets or lawn chairs.

Gardens of the World is at 2001 E. Thousand Oaks Blvd. across from the Civic Arts Plaza.

For more information, go to <http://www.callutheran.edu/music>.

© 2011 Scripps Newspaper Group — Online